April Showers, Showers, Showers...

The old saying "April Showers Bring May Flowers" quite literally is ringing true this year. It has been a wet April but it's also brought along some cooler, spring-like temperatures. These cool fronts won't last as we get deeper into the summer months but it sure is nice while it's here!

On April 19, 2023, the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) denied NPGA's application for a 5 Year Special Exemption to Hours of Service regulations, submitted in September 2022. FMCSA claims in its denial that NPGA's application does not provide an analysis of safety impacts the requested exemption may cause, or countermeasures to ensure that the exemption would likely achieve a level of safety equivalent or greater than the level achieved by the current regulations. FMCSA claims that they cannot ensure that the exemption would achieve the requisite level of safety. FMCSA further stated that the scenarios NPGA outlined as justification for the exemption do not warrant a categorical exemption. NPGA is reviewing the decision, evaluating its options, and will continue to engage FMCSA on hours of service regulations. For questions or additional information, please contact Vice President, Regulatory & Industry Affairs Benjamin Nussdorf.

This is your friendly reminder to register and reserve your room for the 2023 APGA/LPGA Summer Convention! All of the information can be found in this newsletter or on our website. We hope all of you are able to make plans to join us for this annual event June 25-27 in New Orleans!

Transportation to be Largest Louisiana Growth Sector in Coming Years!

Note: Randy Hayden is the governor's appointee to the Energy Sector of the Louisiana Workforce Investment Council. He prepared this report after the most recent meeting of the Council.

Make plans now as the “Transportation and Warehousing” Sector of Louisiana’s workforce is expected to grow by 8.6% in the coming years, making it the fastest growing sector in the job market. That equates to 6,799 new jobs needed to meet the expected demand. Breaking those numbers down, the specific area of “Truck Transportation” is expected to see growth of 7.5% or 1,226 jobs. The category identified as “Support for Truck Transportation” could grow 9.1% or 1,702 new jobs.

Overall, the state is on track to see an employment increase of 3% or 58,629 new jobs but that growth varies across all markets in the state. For instance, the Baton Rouge market will see the largest growth of 3.8%, while the least growth is expected in the Lake Charles market at 0.5%.

On a numbers basis, the “Food Services and Accommodation” sector will see growth of 6% or 11,006 jobs. The “Health and Social Services” sector will add 9,044 jobs or 3%. The only sector with job loss is expected to be the “Government” sector which could see a decline of 1,300 jobs. It should be noted that this loss does not include “Education” or “Hospitals.”

The Louisiana Workforce Investment Council serves to develop a strategic plan to coordinate and integrate a workforce development delivery system to assure efficiency and cooperation between public and private entities by advising the governor on the needs of Louisiana's employers and its workforce.

It was another successful year at the Zurich Classic for the Louisiana Propane Dealers! With record-breaking crowds, beautiful weather and Miss Louisiana Gracie Reichman on deck, it was easy to pass along information and pro tips about how propane is Energy for Everyone and a Fuel for Our Future! Our infamous putt-putt game for propane swag was back and more challenging than ever. It was a fun and great four days spent on the 18th fairway of TPC-Louisiana. Congratulations to this year's champions, Nick Hardy and Riley Davis!

NPGA Endorses Senate Legislation that Would Alleviate Agency Overreach

This legislation would:

- Require that DOE certify that any stove, water heater, or furnace energy efficiency rule would not result in fuel switching from natural gas to electric appliances;
- Specify that DOE may not put forward a rule that would limit the features of gas stoves, such as quick boil times, number and size of burners, and design of grates;
- Exempt small manufacturers from future energy efficiency rulemakings for stoves, water heaters, and furnaces; and,
- Require that existing energy efficiency labels displayed at the point of sale disclose full-fuel-cycle efficiency rather than point-of-use energy consumption.

Senator Barrasso, and the Republican Energy and Natural Resources Committee, issued a press release that contained this quote from Steve Kaminski, NPGA's President and CEO, "The National Propane Gas Association supports the Natural Gas Appliances Standards Act of 2023, which protects consumer choice, prevents fuel switching, and provides transparency for energy efficiency labeling requirements. NPGA applauds Senator Barrasso's efforts to provide reasonable protections for consumers to choose their preferred fuel and home appliances."

The Republican Energy and Natural Resources press release, a copy of NPGA's letter of support, and the legislation can be found HERE.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Biden's Latest Attack on Gas Stoves Met with Opposition from Coalition of State Attorneys General

Louisiana, Tennessee AG's Lead Multi-State Coalition Against Department of Energy Proposal

BATON ROUGE, LA - Louisiana Attorney General Jeff Landry and Tennessee Attorney General Jonathan Skrmetti led a 21-state coalition opposing proposed standards for conventional cooking products created by Joe Biden's Department of Energy (DOE). The proposed rule would regulate the types of stoves and ovens Americans use to cook. Among other things, it would make over half of the gas stoves currently on the market illegal.

"Despite all the spin from the White House proclaiming otherwise, this proposed rule leaves no doubt about it: the Biden Administration is indeed coming for your gas stoves," said Louisiana Attorney General Landry. "This form is no different than the last; both are unlawful and unattainable green energy fantasies from a failed President."

In a letter to Energy Secretary Jennifer Granholm, the attorneys general noted that this new attempt "to micro-manage the lives of Americans" has little support. For example, DOE extensively and unlawfully uses purported social costs of carbon, methane, and nitrous oxide emissions to justify the proposed rule. The States pointed out that those numbers are the product not of data, but of arbitrary assumptions which - as here - can be set to justify any regulation. Further, DOE ignored the federalism implications of interfering with the States' traditional authority to regulate consumer goods and the constitutional concerns of expanding DOE regulatory authority to even intrastate commerce.

Joining Attorneys General Landry and Skrmetti in this effort were the attorneys general from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas, Utah, and Virginia.

There's Still Time to Complete the Annual Retail Sales Survey

Propane retailers are asked to respond to the annual retail propane sales report directly on PERC's website, propane.com/salesreport.

Today, every propane retailer was sent an email and a letter directing them to visit a secure portal on propane.com to complete their company's report for 2022 retail sales.

Submit your survey by May 31st to help ensure your state receives an accurate amount of state rebate funding from 20 percent of PERC's annual revenues, and to see that your assessment dollars are used in the most efficient way to support market trends.

Individual responses are kept confidential and anonymous. Only summary statistics are presented in the final report, and data is never disclosed to third parties.

The final report is shared on propane.com/salesreport and incorporated into the National and State Propane Profiles, showing market trends by state and region.

If you're unsure which person at your company is responsible for submitting, please email us at salesreport@propane.com.

Thank you to those who have already completed and submitted your company's 2022 retail sales report!

The Learning Center Offers Easy Access to Latest Workforce Training and Education Resources

Why have almost 50,000 propane professionals made The Learning Center on propane.com the industry's go-to resource for all types of workforce training?

Learning in the propane industry is not a one-and-done process. There are new appliances and equipment that use propane, changing codes, and updated regulations that require initial and refresher training that require a highly skilled workforce.

Whether you're newly hired or a seasoned vet, there is always fresh, dynamic material available to make you a safer, more productive team member. Propane professionals can access that vital content from their desktop computer, laptop, cellphone, or tablet for either individual training or enhanced traditional classroom sessions.

Since PERC launched The Learning Center at propane.com in 2020, its delivery of education and compliance material continues to draw robust user engagement for a more personalized, job-focused learning experience.

"Over the last three years, The Learning Center has made workforce training and certification better, faster, and more economical than ever before," says Eric Kuster, PERC's senior vice president of safety, education and compliance.

Today, the platform offers more than 500 pieces of educational content from a convenient, central access point. Participating companies large and small leverage the platform's flexibility to customize preferences to fit specific skill sets and job duties for their staffs.

Meanwhile, PERC continues to add and update materials on compliance, emergency responses, environmental messaging, safety, sales, workforce recruitment, and other market-trending topics, including:

- Safety and Technical training programs that help keep employees safe and educated on propane specific topics.
- The Certified Employee Training Program, which includes modules and learning paths that provide technical training for drivers, service technicians and plant operators.
- Market and industry training to help office personnel, sales professionals, and field employees understand the environmental benefits of propane as well as new equipment options available to customers.

- A new Propane Emergencies program for first responders that can help them become certified as a hazmat responder.
- Workforce development programs like the Entry Level Driver Training program that helps drivers meet the requirements for obtaining a CDL or Hazmat endorsement and the HVAC/Plumber program that teaches propane-specific topics to heating and plumbing technicians.

Many of these programs are in an eLearning format so that training courses can be taken online. PERC also supports instructor-led training through instructor tools, power point presentations, student books, and on-the-job training worksheets, as well as compliance and technical guides, safety alerts, and consumer safety materials all available for download.

PERC is also introducing the "Learning Center App" available at the App store. It provides access to all the information that the Learning Center has to offer, right on your mobile device.

Explore all the options at The Learning Center at <https://training.propane.com>.
